Senators Ponder Community Chest

By Harold Kurtz
TRUMPET News Editor

Should Wartburg College have a campus Community Chest?

This was the question posed before the Student Senate at the first meeting of the year last Tuesday evening.

Since furniture has not yet arrived for the new Senate office in the Student Union, the Senate retreated to the Luther Hall Faculty Lounge.

Comprising the executive committee are President Don Manthei, Vice President Eldor Windhorn, Treasurer Boh Vogel and Secretary Jean Pfeifer.

In other business the Senate recommended that bulletin boards he placed in the Union, heard a report on a proposed commission system, named a Swing Show assistant director and acted on minor business.

Windhorn Reports

Windhorn, reporting for the Student Welfare Committee, advocated adoption of a student Community Chest in conjunction with the Waverly Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Stressing the idea of hetter community relations, Windhorn stated that the committee favored a drive with no set goal and no expectation of any large sum heing raised. The all-school fund-raising would be in addition to the Student Body Project.

Another proposal outlined was to have a campus chest with the proceeds being distrihuted to such campus organizations as Lutheran Student Council. In addition, a definite percentage would be contrihuted to the Waverly Chest.

No Action Taken

No action was taken until additional information could he secured. Final action must be approved hy the student hody.

Chairman Boh Vogel of the Constitutional Revision Committee presented a lengthy reorganization plan designed to produce more efficient government.

Under the proposed system, general commissions would be substituted for the specialized committees of the present system.

Report Goes Back

After a lengthy discussion, tbe report was turned back to the committee for further study.

The Senate unanimously recommended to the Union Council that hulletin hoards be placed in the Union. Because the Union Council has full control over the SMU, the Senate could only recommend this action.

Upon nomination hy Swing Show Director Jim Roever, Cy Wainscott, junior, was named assistant show head.

Time Of Meetings Set

Senate meetings were set for the first and third Mondays of each month.

Appointment of a student representative to the Waverly Junior Chamher of Commerce was postponed, pending reorganization of the local chamher.

The Senate radio program over KWAR-FM will again be aired this year.

SBP Manthei reported that no additional information had been received concerning the Christian Liheral Arts Schools Association.

Frosh Meet College Student Government In Thursday's Orientation Convocation

"Orientation to student government" sums up Thursday's student body meeting.

Introduction of senators, explanation of Senate committee workings and the role of the individual student in government work occupied most of the initial session.

Senators of the three upper classes were presented along with information that freshman elections would fill the four vacancies now in the legislative body.

Group Meets Senators

Introduced at the meeting were sophomores Erv Janssen, Judy Gore, Olinda Deines and Stan Vogel; juniors Milt Ost, Don Altmann, Carolyn Adix and Ed Schneider; seniors Boh Vogel, Senate Treasurer, Jean Pfeifer, Senate secretary, Dick Lehmann, Paul Wittenherg, Eldor Windhorn, vice president, and Don Manthei, student hody president.

Manthai

Windhorn

Speaking on the procedures of the various Senate committees, Windhorn gave a brief explanation of the function of each group.

Vogel outlined the student's part on faculty-student committees.

Senate procedure and setup was sketched hy Jean Pfeifer, Senate secretary.

Forms Distributed

Stressing the fact that student government is no better than the people in it, junior representative Schneider encouraged all freshmen to fill out the questionnaire circulated at the meeting. The applications dealt with volunteers for the various student committees.

Community relations with the city of Waverly were also mentioned in discussing the question of naming a representative to the Junior Chamher of Commeree.

Prior to adjourning, SBP Manthei requested that students desiring to serve in any capacity, should get in touch with any senator or with him.

Wartburg Will Share $20,000 Deere Aid With 17 Iowa Schools

Wartburg is one of 18 Iowa schools which will share a $20,000 grant given to the Iowa College Foundation by four John Deere Co. plants in Iowa.

The grant for each college is based 60 per cent on foundation membership and 40 per cent on enrollment for the 1955 term. Exact amount to he received by Wartburg will not be determined until enrollment figures are in for all 18 foundation schools.

Money received will be used for non-recurring expenses, such as sidewalks, tennis courts and other building purposes.

"Thus," Engelbrecht pointed out, "more college funds will he free for use in furthering Wartburg's basic academic principles."

The John Deere firms located in Waterloo, Dubuque, Ottumwa and Des Moines also gave $5,000 jointly to Drake University of Des Moines and Coe College of Cedar Rapids.

Green beanies, straight sidewalks, wastebaskets and longer men's hair-dos seem to he in style this year for 292 Wartburg College freshmen. Complying with the rules set up by the initiation committee, freshmen have eagerly learned the loyalty song and carried trays for their "most honorable upperclassmen."

Coming from 12 states tbese students comprise the largest freshman class in Wartburg's history. Iowa claims the greatest percentage of new students with 156, while Wisconsin is second with 40.

Thirty students are from Illinois, 21 from Minnesota, 15 from South Dakota, 10 from Nebraska, and 9 from North Dakota. Kansas freshmen number four, Oklaboma two, with one each from Colorado, California and Missouri.

Folkerts' Picture In September Issue Of One

A future music teacher from Manson, Miss Folkerts is cited for her reign over the Iowa Conference Track Meet at Wartburg last spring. The feature in One includes campus beauties from 21 of the 31 four-year Lutheran colleges in the United States and Canada.

One, edited hy Omar Bonderud, former TRUMPET head, is the youth magazine published for the young people of four Lutheran bodies in America—the American, Evangelical, Free and United Evangelical Lutheran Churches. The queens picture section is an annual fall feature in One.

H. Mueller, Lunde Win Jubilee Award

Helen Mueller, pianist from Tripp, S.D., and Keith Lunde, baritone from Monona, were recently announced winners of the Diamond Jubilee Music Scholarship annually awarded to two Wartburg freshmen, preferably students working toward a degree.

Auditions for this annual award were held on Friday, Sept. 9, and judged hy the music faculty. The winners are picked on basis free for use in furthering Wartof general scholarship, musical achivement and promise of accomplishment as a solo perfaccomplishment as a solo performer.

'Jobs Well Done' By Frosh, Sophs

Praise for a "job well done" was directed at the freshman and sophomore classes this week hy H. C. Engelbrecht, college business manager.

Engelbrecht reported that the freshmen sanded, shellacked and varnished more than one hundred and twenty desk-chairs and laid a fine sidewalk as a part of the Freshman Work Project last Saturday.

The sophomores were cited for their "splendid organization work," declared hy Engelbrecht to he the best in many years. The Work Project is continuing today as more Luther Hall chairs come under sandpaper and hrush.

IMPRESSED BY EUROPEAN STUDENTS

Fulbright Winner Schmidt Presents Views Of Europe

How about a trip to Berlin, Paris, Copanhagen, Roma, Brussels, Amsterdam Versailles and other colorful, historic European landmarks? This is tha first in a series of feature articles on Wartburg's own Fulbright Scholarship winner, Warren Schmidt.

By Cy Wainscott
TRUMPET Managing Editor

"Europe today isn't the romantic, fairy-tale world of 'The Student Prince' that most tourists believe it to be—but it has genuine charm and fascination the year around."

That was the observation of Warren Schmidt, instructor of music, returning to Warthurg after 10 months of study in Germany under a Fulhright Scholarship.

While studying music at the Hochschule fur Musik in Frankfurt, Germany, Schmidt and his wife, Mary, who accompanied him, were able to travel extensively on the continent and to gather interesting impressions of European peoples and nations from Sweden to Italy.

Set Sail In Sept. '54

Sailing from New York on Sept. 7, 1954, on the liner Grippsholm (now renamed M. S. Berlin) and returning last July 19 on the S. S. United States, Schmidt was aided by the scholarship which covered the expense of travel to and from the school and provided a monthly allowance.

WARREN AND MARY SCHMIDT reflect upon some of the souvenirs the pair collected during their 10 month stay in Germany. The object in question is a set of valuable German steal cutlary.

"I was most impressed by the high degree of scholarship in Germany," said Schmidt. "Students are admitted to the higher schools solely on the basis of their talents and ability to learn.

"If they have the talent and no money, the government will provide it. But if they have the money and no talent they have little chance of being admitted.

"The school standards are unflinchingly rigid and severe. The attitude of 'helping a student along' is practically unheard of. A wide, permanently fixed gulf has been set between faculty members and students."

Schmidt revealed that social activity consists not of parties and athletic contests as in American schools but rather in intellectual discussions in the student homes or over a glass of beer at a popular restaurant.

"There is no sports program such as we have," Schmidt noted. "The Germans satisfy their competitive appetite with debate, argumentation and scholarly endeavors."

Few Own Autos

Students, like most of the German population, travel by streetcar, bus or bicycle. Automobiles are owned only by the wealthy.

Germany and all of Europe look to the United States for leadership in practical and technical fields, but still believe their own particular nation to be the cultural leader.

"They think of all Americans as being extremely wealthy," Schmidt mused, "and by their standards, we are."

Citizenship, Football Head Convo Slate

National Citizenship Day observance and an explanation of football tactics will highlight convocations next week in Knights Gymnasium.

Dr. Herbert Max, head of the Education Department, will address the student body at Tuesday's convo. His topic will he "Education for Citizenship."

Head football coach Norman Johansen will introduce members of the football squad to Thursday's assemhlage. An explanation and demonstration of Warthurg's offensive and defensive foothall techniques and a short pep meeting will round out the program.

Student Voice In Educational Policies?

Lost in the maze of registration which occurred during the first week of school was a dramatic proposal made by Pres. C. H. Becker to members of the Leadership Retreat, a proposal which, in effect, would give the student body an opportunity to voice its needs and wishes regarding the educational policy of Wartburg College.

The suggestion came somewhat as a surprise to all the members of the Student Senate and heads of campus organizations attending the two-day thinkfest, even though such a recommendation had been made to the Student Senate by SBP Tom Loftus when be surrendered the reins of student body government last year.

Now, what is the possibility of putting such a plan into practical operation? How is the best way to go about it? And what would it mean to the students?

Let's begin by investigating the present manner in which the college's educational policies are formed, namely, by the Faculty Educational Policies Committee composed of all the division heads, the registrar, librarian and two faculty members elected at large. Dean of the Faculty A. E. Haefner is chairman of the committee.

The committee treats matters in the area of admissions, classification of students, registration, student loans and requirement for graduation. In short, it concerns itself with all the material covered in the Wartburg College Bulletin starting on page 54.

The purpose of presenting the student body with the privilege and right to aid in forming the educational policies of the college is twofold.

First, it would give the faculty a chance to know the students' thinking in educational trends. Secondly, it would give to the student body occasion to voice its opinions as to the needs which have grown out of educational trends and which should be met by the college.

The possibility of initiating such a program is good. Faculty members appear fairly receptive. But another element of extreme importance is involved.

In selecting the method which the student body would employ in giving vent to its opinions regarding educational policies, the students must keep uppermost in their minds two facts:

Prior to now, such an idea would have been considered completely revolutionary. And, being quite unfamiliar with all the implications involved in forming educational policy, the student body must realize that it would have to gradually ease into a position to make the program effective.

ment of extreme importance is involved.

Do Unto Others As Ye . . .

Unquestionably the most harassed group on campus is the freshmen. With their only sympothizers heing nostalgic-hitten seniors and juniors and a few faculty memhers, freshmen are ruggedly heing accepted into the ranks of the college file.

A paraphrase of the parahle of the Good Samaritan in terms of present-day life in college was written many years ago hy Charles W. Gilkey, then dean of the Rockefeller Memorial Chapel ot the University of Chicago. It reads:

"A certain Freshman went from home to college and she fell among critics who soid that she had no style, that her manners were awkward and that she had an unattroctive personality. Then they stripped her of her self-confidence, her enthusiasm and her courage, and departed, leaving her hurt, lonely and half-dead.

"And when the Seniors saw it, they were amused, soying, 'What a good joh the Sophomores are doing on that Freshman'; ond they passed hy on the other side.

"In like manner the Juniors also, when they saw it, smiled and said, 'Yes, verily, for she hath not the making of a good sorority girl'; and they passed hy on the other side.

"But a certain special student, as she went ahout, came where the Freshman was, and when she saw the Freshman she was moved with compassion, and came to her and hound up her wounds, pouring in sympathy and understanding; and she took the Freshman to her room and set her on her feet again, and hrought her into her own circle and was a friend to her.

"Which of these, thinkest thou, proved a neighhor to her that fell omong the critics? Go and do thou likewise!"

That new Student Union is wonderful. Did you know that every piece ol furniture in the lounge is put together with nothing hut wooden pegs? (Anybody know how to put a wooden pegged writing desk hack together again?)

Then there's the cafeteria. The location is different, the tables and chairs are new and there are two lines instead of one. But the food is still the same. It amazes me how they could keep it fresh over the three-month vacation.

Some of tha teachers this yaar treat you as though you're a high school student and pila on work as though you're a grad student. They actually BELIEVE that students can put in two hours of homawork for evary hour of class.

TRUMPET Managing Editor Cy Wainscott is a candidate for the Pulitzer Prize this year. Someone read one of his "I need money, Dad" letters and suhmitted it.

Thank you, Wartburg College. Now, in addition to car keys, room keys, typewriter keys and suitcase keys, we have a mailhox key to worry about. The only other kind of keys I can tolerate right now is Evelyn Keyes.

I serve a purpose in this school
On which no man can frown.
I quiatly sit in avery class,
And keep tha avaraga down.

Some of the freshman hoys ore emharrassed ahout the "no shaving" rule in the initiation orders. Seems they don't shave, anyway. Mayhe it would make them feel better to know that there is a senior on third floor Grossmann who has heen shaving for three years and cut himself hoth times.

The long-playing records are now just os popular in South America as they are in the United States. The Latins really go for those 33 revolutions per minute.

After carrying around books for four consecutive classes, I am beginning to suspect that tha new freshman fad of carrying wastepaper baskats isn't so bad after all.

Will the frosh who took John Werner's nine-foot hull-whip away from him, please return it? He has to practice up for Kangaroo Kort.

Someone once descrihed it this way: College hred—a four-year loaf requiring a fearful amount of dough and seldom self-raising.

Footnotes To Faith:
You Can Have Power—Free

By The Rev. W. G. Tillmanns
Associata Professor of Garman

One of the most blessed, hut also most cursed words of our time is "Power." Everyhody wants it.

Our people spend millions of dollars to increase their powers, the power of words, the power of position, the power of positive thinking and what have you? Whole industries, genuine and fake, have sprung up that cater to the universal desire for "more power."

Tillmanns

"More power to you" is one of our favorite mottos. Theologians, psychiatrists, psychologists, physicians, educators are heing kept husy to give you more power. In high school, college and university, the trite phrase that "Education is power" is heing repeated "ad nauseam."

What kind of power? Look around you. See what happened to some of the most "advanced" nations. Look at some of the moral wrecks among the educated people. Where is there to he found happiness, satisfaction and hlessing?

It seems that in our day the word "Power" has lost most of its hlessings and gathered most of its curses. Why? Because power in our modern society is almost always divorced from its source—God.

You and I can have the right kind of power—free. It is given to us as the greatest hlessing which God can hestow upon man: Power over sin and death, release from all anxieties, the heginning of a new life which has meaning.

In our Naw Testament wa find the kind of power which is the basis of all powar. "But as many as raceived Him, to them gave Ha power to become tha sons of God." (John 1:12).

Powar to become tha sons of God—what else do we need? To be forgiven, redeemed, accepted, to live a glorious life in His power.

St. Paul says that the Gospel is "the power of God unto salvation to everyone that helieveth." (Rom. 1:16). If we accept this power in faith and suhmit ourselves under the mighty hand of God, then we can truly say, "More power to you."

Knights Open At Platteville, Battle Jinx, Pioneers At 2

By Oala Kopitzke
TRUMPET Sports Editor

Seeking their first opening day victory since 1946, Wartburg's gridders journeyed to Platteville, Wis., today, where they will battle Wisconsin State College of Platteville at 2 p.m.

Host to Platteville in last year's opener, the Knights played to a 26-26 tie. Starting fast, the Jomen grabbed a first half lead only to see it disappear as the Teachers roared back and outscored Wartburg, 26-6, in the second stanza.

Although too early in the season for any reports, Platteville always boasts a strong aggregation.

Said Coach Norm Johansen, "They were tough last year and didn't lose much to graduation, so no doubt they will be tough again."

Two Former Knights Aid

Along with assistants Bob Campbell and Bill Fruehling, Johansen has two former Wartburg grid standouts aiding him. Former fullback Cy Pick, remembered for his 97-yard touchdown run against Buena Vista on the opening kickoff of the 1952 Homecoming game, is assisting with the Knight backfield. Chuck Schumann, bulwark of the forward wall last year, is aiding line coach Fruehling.

Passing quarterback Art Margbeim and pass receiving end Wendy Liemohn will be counted on heavily in the Knight offense today. Margheim, a junior, ranked 22nd among the nation's small college passers last year with 56 completions in 115 attempts—good for 771 yards and seven touchdowns.

Liemohn rated seventh nationally as a receiver with 31 catches for 478 yards.

Loss Of Bosa Hurts

Loss of Chuck Bose, Knights' leading scorer last year, will be felt, but left half, Bill Bomhoff, who gained 311 yards in 59 carries last season, is still around.

Senior Stan Kittleson, a three-year letter winner, has been converted to guard to add strength to the Jomen's forward wall.

Commenting on the team Johansen remarked, "We should be as good as last season, but we do lack depth. Our forward wall is slow and needs a lot of work."

Today's game should give Knight fans a preview of conference chances as the Jomen go out to break an opening day jinx with victory number one.

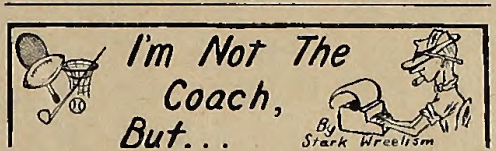
With the exception of Homecoming, all home games begin at 7:30 p.m.

O'BRIEN, MARGHEIM, LEHMANN and Bomhoff charge the TRUMPET lensmen as they warm up for their starting backfield roles in this afternoon's opener against Plattevilla.



If any team succeeds in taking the air out of the high flying Luther Norsemen's sails, then the 1955 Iowa Conference grid race could conceivably turn into a tightly contested battle.

Luther, which gained national recognition last fall as the third best small-college team on rushing offense (350.2 yards average per game) and sixth best in total offense (395.4 per game), is accustomed to eating high on the football hog. This season should not be an exception.

A hotter and more interesting fight, at least from the fans' viewpoint, should develop for second place. Wartburg, Dubuque and Iowa Wesleyan, finishing in that order behind Luther last season, should be putting on a spirited struggle for runner-up position in the IC.

Luther's Coach Ed Schweizer, although losing the center of his forward wall, will be sending four backfield men out on the field who could make any IC coach's face flush with envy. They are Dick Rundell, Don Nesheim, Bob Radcliffe and Jack Sebultz, all returnees from last year's undefeated, untied team.

Iowa Wesleyan, graduating only five seniors from last year's squad of 41, will bear watching. Benefiting somewhat from the season schedule, Dubuque should toy with the upper division, since the Spartans do not meet either Wartburg or Luther this season.

Buena Vista will be under the direction of a new boss this year. Daan Laun, Iowa State's football captain in '49 and an all-Big Seven and for the Cyclones, will head the Beaver aggregation, which boasts a veteran in every position.

Parsons, Central, Simpson and Upper Iowa, barring any gridiron miracles, probably won't get out of the lower division, but could figure in determining the order of the top four teams in the loop.

WAA Elects Wed.; Meet In Gym At 7

Election of officers will be the main business at the first Women's Athletic Association meeting to be held Wednesday evening at 7 in Knights Gymnasium.

After the business meeting, activity will include badminton, ping-pong and trampolining. Veteran members and all other girls interested in athletics are urged to attend, according to Miss Adeline Langrock, club adviser.

Fritschel, Johansen Picked By Lettermen

Fritz Fritschel, junior, was elected secretary-treasurer of the "W" Club at the organization's initial meeting of the school year last Monday night.

Seniors Stan Kittleson and Wendy Liemobn, elected last spring, are president and vice president of the lettermen's group. Head of the Physical Education Department, Norm Jobansen, was chosen club adviser. Fall initiation is being planned by chairman John Adix, assisted by Bill Bomhoff, junior, and Tom Glidewell, sopbomore.

Jim Woodrow was picked to head the committee for the "W" Club's fall project, which will be selling programs at Wartburg's home football games Norm Scott and Louis Gomer will assist in the project.

Shaw Chorale First In Series

By Marsha Arhart
TRUMPET News Writer

Opening with the appearance of the world-famous Robert Shaw Chorale and Orchestra on Nov. 8, the Wartburg Artist Series of 1955 - '56 will once again bring the best in music and lectures to the college campus.

Other outstanding programs on the Series' schedule are the World Affairs Council, a miniature United Nations Security Council, the original Black Hills Passion Play, Robert McFerrin, leading baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Company and the Mozarteum Orchestra of Salzburg, Austria.

A group of 30 singers, the Robert Shaw Chorale is familiar to thousands because of its tours, recordings and appearances with top-ranking symphony orchestras. Its music ranges from sacred works and operatic compositions to standard and popular favorites.

Shaw Holds Degrees

Thirty-eight-year-old Robert Shaw holds two honorary doctorates in music and has had a growing reputation as an unexcelled conductor in the choral field.

The Honorable Camille Chautemps, former vice president and premier of France; John C. Metcalfe, American Syndicate editor; Arthur Webb, dean of British correspondents in Washington; and Peter von Zahn, Washington correspondent for the largest German radio network, all panel members of the World Affairs Council, will present a four-way debate on today's top world news.

This portrayal of a United Nations Security Council in session will be an unrehearsed discussion and will close with an audience question period.

Meier Plays Christ

Portraying Christ in the Black Hills Passion Play, will be Josef Meier, who is acclaimed as the outstanding interpreter of this most difficult role. The production will reconstruct the dramatic events of the seven last days of the life of Christ.

Baritone Robert McFerrin was generally unknown to the public two years ago. However, unanimous vote of judges at the Metropolitan Auditions of the Air in 1953 soon gave him the chance to share his great voice and fine musicianship.

The Mozarteum Orchestra, direct from Salzburg, Austria, will present a concert commemorating the two hundredth anniversary of the birth of Mozart. Richard Holm, tenor; Emmy Loose, soprano; and Walter Barylli, violinist, will be featured soloists with the orchestra.

Add Specialty Series

Three specialty numbers have been added to the regular schedule of the Artist Series. These specialties are in response to a large number of requests, according to Dr. A. W. Swensen, chairman of the Artist Series Committee.

The first of this series will be an illustrated lecture by Cleveland P. Grant. His lecture and pictures are on "Wildlife of Marsh and Mountain." The film will include the area of north-central North Dakota, Montana and the Canadian Rockies and will show the birds, animals and scenery of that region.

Thomas E. Healy, noted foreign correspondent, will present the next in the series of specialties. His all-color film lecture is entitled "Africa Without Make-up" and will feature wild animal, scenic and native dance sequences, complete with a background of native music.

The last in the special series will be a harmonica recital by Cham-Ber Huang. Huang is a native of Shanghai, China, and began playing harmonica at the age of six. Since that time he has become so skillful with his instrument that he is known today as "The Chinese Virtuoso of the Harmonica."

"The expense of this year's Artist Series greatly exceeds that of previous years," stated Dr. Swensen. "The quality of the programs is outstanding.

"I believe that no college in the country the size of Wartburg has an Artist Series equal to ours."

Band, Choir, Castle Singers Increase

As Wartburg's musical organizations make plans for the school year, 93 students have been added to their membership.

Wartburg Choir, under the direction of Dr. Edwin Liemohn, has added 24 new members who will enter choir during the second semester.

Thirty of the fifty-six members of Castle Singers are new. Dr. E. A. Hovdesven directs this group.

Ernest Hagen, band director, has added 40 band members. Thirty-nine are freshmen. The band will entertain the fans at all home football games this fall.

'Uncle Herb' Granddad; Lisa Ann Granddaughter

"Uncle Herb" Engelbrecht, college business manager and assistant to the president, can now claim the title of "grandpa."

Engelbrecht received word recently that his son Richard and daughter-in-law, the former Bernice Hilmer, became the parents of a six-pound girl on Aug. 28. Named Lisa Ann, she is the first child born to the younger Engelbrechts and is "Uncle Herb's" first grandchild.

The parents both graduated from Wartburg in 1953. At present they are living at Norfolk Naval Base, Va., where Richard is stationed.

Dormitary Officers Assume Executive Positians

Newly elected officers from the four dormitories on campus have recently assumed their duties.

Geraldine Zumbrunnen, sophomore, was elected president of Wartburg Hall. Other officers are Anna Dons, vice president; Carol Meier, secretary; and Shirley Bietz, treasurer, all sophomores.

Centennial Hall will be headed this year by president Roberta Bock, sophomore; vice president Gloria Schlange, junior; secretary Rosemary Limburg, sophomore; and treasurer Carolyn Scheer, sophomore.

Radio Station Adds New Control Room

Broadcasting from Wartburg radio station KWAR will be aided this year by a new soundproof control room.

Charles Dickson, head of dramatics at Wartburg, and juniors Gary Volberding and Jim Roever worked on the room during the week before the opening of the college year, completely rewiring and revamping it. The Little Theater was also given a coat of bright blue paint. Some rewiring is being planned for the near future.

DM Meeting Draws Liemohn, Hagen

Dr. Edwin Liemohn, Wartburg Music Department head, and Ernest Hagen, band and orchestra director, are attending the meeting of the executive committee of the Iowa Music Teachers Association in Des Moines today.

Liemohn is vice president of the committee, and Hagen is orchestra chairman. The Iowa Music Teacher's Association will hold its convention on the Wartburg campus in October, 1956.
